

ILLINOIS STATE FARMHOUSE FRATERNITY SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

FarmHouse Fraternity at Illinois State University is sponsoring a $500.00 Scholarship for any male high school senior that will be attending Illinois State University in the fall of 2010 in any major. FarmHouse was founded in 1905 at the University of Missouri based on the core values of building the whole man, Intellectually, Spiritually, Socially, Morally and Physically. FarmHouse was founded at Illinois State University in 1983 and has since been known as one of the premier fraternities on campus, continuing to uphold the same values and morals that began 104 years ago.

Deadline for application is May 24th, 2010.

Name: _____
Address: _____
Home Phone: _____
Cell Phone: _____
E-Mail Address: _____

High School: _____
Address: _____
Guidance Counselor: _____
High School GPA: _____
ACT/SAT: _____

Please fill out the following questions in the spaces provided. (Please print or type)

What awards/recognitions have you received throughout your high school career?

What activities are you involved in within your school? Include any leadership positions held.

What activities are you involved in with your community? Include any leadership positions held.

In one paragraph or less please describe why you choose to attend Illinois State University and what you hope to achieve during your time as an undergraduate student.

The applicants and/or recipient of this award are not bound to membership with the fraternity. Submission of this application or being the recipient of this award does not guarantee consideration for membership in the fraternity.

Please mail the application along with one letter of recommendation, official transcript, and any other attachment to:

FarmHouse Fraternity
ATTN: Scholarship
805 Franklin Ave.
Normal, Illinois 61761

Further information about the fraternity can be obtained by calling the chapter house or visiting our web site.

(309) 452-3306

www.ilstatefarmhouse.org